In order to become a certified instructor and/or assessor, a candidate must:

1. Complete the application(s);
2. Attach all required documentation (including ORIGINAL TRANSCRIPTS, copies of professional licenses/certificates)
3. Attend all sessions of the training, participate as required by the training (e.g., PRI requires an evaluated presentation to a group within 90 days of the on-site training) and score a minimum of 80% on a posttest;
4. Pay the training fee (a certification letter will not be issued until the fee is paid)
Checks or money orders are to be made payable to: Eastern Kentucky University with the exception of the PRI Driving Unimpaired 20 hour education classes which are to be made payable to PRI.

All documentation needs to arrive by the deadline specified in the training schedule. For those who successfully complete the training and have no outstanding fees, a certification letter will be issued within 30 days of completion of the training. Those individuals who do not successfully complete the training will be notified in writing. Mail applications and fees to:
